REC-19

13 JAN 1970

RL-333

SUBJECT: Franz SCHURMANN

1. A confidential source has reported that Subject is a Sinologist of considerable repute and a Maoist in political orientation. He is the head of the Radical Institute located in San Francisco at 9 Sutter Street, Room 300, which employs four volunteer workers. The Radical Institute plans to undertake two projects in the San Francisco Bay area and the Pacific which will be known as the "Movement for Change" and "Hunter's Point Project." Subject is involved in raising money for the Radical Institute among his leftist and radical friends.

2. Subject and [redacted] of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology have been invited to attend a meeting of the Radical Asian Caucus to be held in Vienna, Austria on 25 January 1970. Asian specialists from throughout the world, including Communist China, are expected to attend the Caucus which will be restricted to those with invitations, possibly for security reasons. Plans for the Caucus are also being closely held.
